

Senate...Yes, No, Maybe....What do YOU Think??

Using the information in your Counterpoints Textbook pp. 230-233, you will list three points (from these readings) in favour of EACH point of view below:

The Canadian Senate is:

- a.) fine the way it is
- b.) of no use and should be abolished
- c.) needed but requires the following changes

Next, based on what you have read and learned about the Senate, you will state which of the three opinions above you agree with most. In 5-6 sentences, you will explain why you feel this way (why is your choice the best one?)

KEEP IN MIND: You are only using one small source of information to develop your opinion. In most cases, if you were being asked to provide an opinion on such an important topic, you would research multiple sources of information to help you base your opinion on the most possible information.

Senate...Yes, No, Maybe....What do YOU Think??

Using the information in your Counterpoints Textbook pp. 230-233, you will list three points (from these readings) in favour of EACH point of view below:

The Canadian Senate is:

- a.) fine the way it is
- b.) of no use and should be abolished
- c.) needed but requires the following changes

Next, based on what you have read and learned about the Senate, you will state which of the three opinions above you agree with most. In 5-6 sentences, you will explain why you feel this way (why is your choice the best one?)

KEEP IN MIND: You are only using one small source of information to develop your opinion. In most cases, if you were being asked to provide an opinion on such an important topic, you would research multiple sources of information to help you base your opinion on the most possible information.